Republicans of Pennsylvania Assemble in Convention,

To Nominate the "Hero of Johnstown,"

GEN. DANIEL HASTINGS

The General's Nomination is Made Unanimous.

A Strong Platform Adopted Without Dissenting Voice.

gest crowd seen at a state convention for | unanimously. years, packed the big opera honse when the convention to nominate the candidate of the Republican party for governor, lieutenant governor, andltor general, secretary of state and congressman-at-large, was called to order.

Roll call showed the presence of 257 delegates out of 264. General Louis

temporary chairman.
Walter Lyon of Allegheny was nominated for lieutenant governor, by C. L.

The Platform. The Republicans of Pennsylvania in convention assembled, repeat for the regulation and government of the national currency the following principles of finance which were announced by us at our last state convention and which since then have received the overwhelming approval of our fellow citizens.

We favor the expansion of the circulating medium of the country until the same shall amount to $40 per capita of our population, and approve the proposi-tion to issue national bank notes to the par value of the amount of bonds deposited to secure their circulation. We declare that the obligations of the government should be discharged in money, approved and current in all civilized nations to the end, that a largely increased reserve of gold should be gradually accumulated and maintained.

We declare our belief to be that no legislation can make our currency meet think a few of the leaders only should convene in the opera house at 5 o'clock the needs of the American people unless be held. There is too much talk about this afternoon. it conforms to the following utterance of | this Coxey business and these men are our last national convention:

The American people from tradition and interest favor bimetallism and the demand that every dollar, paper or coin, issued by the government shall be as good as any other.

The Ruinstion of Business. The threats and efforts which the Democratic party, now in control of the executive and legislative departments of the national government, are making to destroy the system of protection to American industries have wrecked our manufacturing establishments, destroyed the value of our farm products, ruined our employers, beggared our workingmen and brought distrust upon the honesty of their proposed legislation.

We denounce this Democratic assault upon the American protective system because its effect already has been to reduce to idleness 2,000,000 of work men and values to an amount greater than the national debt created the suppression of the rebellion, because it enlarges the free list only upon products which employ the greatest number of American work men, because it strikes with all cruelty the farmer, the miner, the lumberman, the iron, the glass and the textile worker, because it transfers work from our own mills, mines and workshops, to foreign countries; because it is sectional and aimed directly at northern industries, and fosters the plantation system and destroys the farm; because it is vicious in its changes from specific to advalorem duties, in its reduction of the revenues of government by many millions of dollars, and it resorts to war taxes and increased internal and direct taxes to make up the deficiency it needlessly creates.

Approve of Republican Obstacles. We commend and approve the efforts of our senators and members of congress to delay and defeat the passage of legislation hostile to any American industry. and we denounce the treatment of our workingmen by the Democratic committee of the senate which in violation of courtesy and of all legislative tradition, denied them a hearing when they desired in constitutional manner to remonstrate against this destructive legis-

We denounce the selection of a southern Democrat for the secretaryship of the interior as a deliberate betrayal of the welfare of our soldiers and sailors and deplore the needless persecutions, auspicions and privations to which they have been subjected under that hostile administration.

We denounced the unpatriotic and un-American management of our foreign relations by the Democratic national administration which surrenders American treaty rights and vital interests in Samos and which has unjustifiably planned and labored to uphold and restore an odious monarchy in Hawaii and prevent the establishment there of a sister republic in conflict with that principle of self-government upon which our own republic of Very Rev. ernment and to that liberty of law upon

The Cleveland administration has verified the worst apprehensions of those who opposed its entrance into office; it has demonstrated its incapacity to govern both foreign and domestic affairs. It has shown its powerlessness to counsel wisely even its own party followers, so that Democratic congressmen are adrift on all questions where the power of public To Either Side in the Contest, patronage does not compel them to act alike. Immediately upon its accession to power the Democratic party betrayed the confidence the American people had re-posed in it, and since then it has continuously shown itself so thoroughly unequal to the discharge of the high trust committed to its care, that its history excites the contempt and distrust of every thoughtful citizen.

Platform Unnulmously Adopted. The platform was unanimously adopted, and then came the most interesting movement of the day, when Gen. Beaver climbed on the stage to nominate Gen. THE SANDERS SITUATION. U. S. Attorney Perry.

Cantain Joe Waters and Insurance Commissioner Snider appeared before Judge Foster late yesterday afternoon and asked him to release Sanders and his army on a writ of habeas corpus. After hearing their arguments Judge Foster sent the following telegram to the United States district attorney:

Hon. Wm. C. Perry, Wichita, Kansas. Unless you consent to the discharge of all the Sanders' men, except five or six, I will have to issue habeas corpus writs.

Judge Foster received the following telegram in reply today: Kansas City, Mo., May 23, 1894.

Your telegram not received except through newspapers. Will see you soon as I can leave court here.

W. C. PERRY. United States Attorney, Judge Foster this afternoon said: "I will take no action until Mr. Perry arrives, if that is soon. I expect him either this evening or tomorrow. I see no pos-sible use of holding all these men. I getting just what they want-a great among the delegates that S. S. Kirkdeal of notoriety."

Judge Snider said today: "We will Republican party demands the use of gold and silver as standard money, with such restrictions and under such provisions, to be determined by legislation, as will secure and maintain the parity of values of the two metals so that the purchasing and debt-paying power of silver, gold or paper shall be at all times equal.

Judge Snider said today: "We will such Sanders, but was descensed to the release of all but Sanders, but was descensed in the convention through a deal which had been made between Lyman U. THEY MAY LYNCH HIM.

The Suspected Murderer Ed Shoemaker at Hennessy, Okla., Captured.

HENNESSY, May 28 .- Nearly every man in the city is armed today and the majority are determined on a lynching. The cause of the excitement is the arrest of Ed Shoemaker, who entered the city this morning, riding a spirited horse and was captured by United States Marshal Taylor, who had been specially appointed to find him.

Shoemaker was suspected of the murder of Edward H. Townsend, a merchant of Todd, an honored Mason and a prominant man in the territory. Mrs. Townsend has positively identified Shoemaker as her husband's slayer.

Townsend was attacked by three men at his home in March last and was killed while valiantly defending himself.

OVER 600 BALLOTS

Are Taken and an Adjournment Until 8 P. M.

Funston 40, Buchan 45-Other Candidates 41.

OLATHE, Kan., May 23 .- The Republican congressional convention met at 4 yesterday afternoon and at once began to ballot for a candidate for congress. There was no change from the balloting Saturday afternoon until ballot 539, when there was a slight change. The result was: Funston, 41; Howard, 21; Smart, 13; Parker, 12; and Buchan, 39. After taking six more ballots resulting the same, the convention adjourned until 8:30.

At the evening session twenty-five ballots were taken, when the convention adjourned until 8:30 this morning. The ballots last evening gave Parker a gain of one from Buchan. Five hundred and seventy-nine ballots have been taken, and the intention appears to be to wear someone out.

The convention met at 8:30 this morning and twenty-two ballots were taken, with little change. Upon the 600th ballot the convention adjourned until 1 o'clock this afternoon.

There was not much change in balloting during the afternoon session. Convention adjourned until 8 o'clock this evening, leaving the vote as follows: Funston 40; Buchan 45; Howard 14; Smart 16; Parker 11.

Convention Organized and Committees Appointed at Phillipsburg.

PHILLIPSBURG, Kas., May 28 .- The Republican congressional convention was called to order in this city this morning promptly at 10 o'clock by Jno. Q. Royce, chairman of the committee, and was duly organized by the selection of E. H. McFarland, of Lincoln, as temporary chairman, and L. C. Headly, of Smith, as temporary secretary.

The usual committees were appointed and the most perfect harmony prevailed throughout the morning session. This is the largest and most enthusiastic convention which ever convened in this district and everything up to the present indicates the most perfect harmony throughout. There are a large number of candidates for state offices on the ground making the acquaintance of the delegates and politicians. A light rain is just beginning, which only adds to the good feeling which has characterized this gathering of politicians from the beginning.

Topeka now has a real live company of the Coxey army. Their watchword is "on to Washington" and they will scornfully turn their backs on their weak hearted brethren of the Home guards just as soon as Sanders and his followers can get ont of the toils of the law.

There was a good attendance at the meeting last night in the Populist league rooms on East Eighth street and twenty-three names were enrolled.

General Artz did most of the talking.

General Artz did most of the talking.
He has finally concluded that he will not march to Washington with the Topeka army, although he says he has received a very good offer from Sanders and Kelly, but declined to state what the offer was. He said: "I have been at Leavenworth and I understand that they have offered to furnish a steamboat and teu day's rations for the Sanders' men if they will plead guilty as they go on the boat; and they also promise that the men will not be molested."

At this juncture Ira Haskins, one of Sanders men who came from Leavenworth last night, arose and said: "I came from the camp today, and I can say that the men are not going by boat and they are not going to walk either." Captain Hunter: "Now these men will have to be cared for until they go to ing utensils here for their use." Lieutenant Elder: "I have a new camping outfit that the men can have." Lieutenant Cope: "We can rent an old building some place for the men to sleep in. They are now sleeping on piles of ties and in box cars." Jeff Davis, the well known colored man, who calls himself another "silvertongued orator," was called for. He took off his coat and gave some startling facts: "Now I tells you what is the matter," he said, "there is between 40,000,000 and 50,000,000 people starving in this country. Mrs. Lease and another man in talking the other day one preached the ballot and the other the bullet but I tells you the time for the ballot is past." He talked for a ball the ball the state of the ballot and the for the ballot is past." half hour and sat down exhausted. Jeff is as amusing as ever. Lieutenant Cope said that he under-stood it was said Mayor Harrison had offered to furnish work for Sanders' army. "I am in favor of getting all our unemployed together and marching up before the mayor and demanding work. We can get 500 men and if he can't furnish work it will stop the story that is going the rounds."

The following names were enrolled in the "On to Washington" company: Geo. Ellard, Lewis Rupp, C. Taylor, J. M. Buyont, W. D. Amber, W. D. Kansas Irrigation Commission Adjourn-ed After Preparing Recommendations. The Kansas Irrigation commission completed the work of the session at

Steps were taken to collect a mass of valuable facts and statistics as to the resources and possibilities of Kansas in this particular. These facts will be collected and arranged by the chairman, J. W. Gregory, and laid before the meeting of the national commission.

A platform or address was adopted setting forth the views of the commission as to what should be the national irrigation policy. It set forth the importance of the judicious administration of the remaining public lands so as to furnish the greatest possible number of homes for homeseekers, and advocates cutting down the homestead unit to forty acres of irrigable land. The importance of forest preservation and extension, the storage of storm waters by this means and reservoirs, the recovery of subterranean waters by artesian wells, by gravity methods and by pumping, are dwelt upon at some length, and it is urged that the administration of all western matters be placed under the charge of an irrigation commission, empowed to settle all disputes and forward the work of development.

The address also advocates such legislation as will effectually guard against forest and prairie fires, and that congress adopt some means of securing to the people of irrigation communities the ownership and control of their necessary irrigation works at a fair margin above actual cost of construction.

Senator Teller Moves to Lay the Tariff Bill

On the Table, His Expressed Intention Being

To See If Democrats Intended to Pass This Bill.

MOTION IS DEFEATED

By a Strict Party Vote of 38 to 28.

Senator Gorman Makes His Speech on the Bill.

WASHINGTON, May 23 .- At 12:22 p. m. today Mr. Teller moved to lay the tariff bill on the table. Mr. Teller's motion was made to test the sense of the Democratic majority and see if the bill was to be the bill which the Democratic party intended to pass.

Messrs. Hill, Irby and Kyle, voted against Teller's motion.

The motion was defeated by a strict party vote—28 yeas to 38 nays.

Senator Hill voted against the motion.

The announcement that Senator Gor-

ARTHUR P. GORMAN.

man would speak today upon the tariff, had the effect of bringing out a larger attendance than usual. Senator Gorman, present from his recent illness, took the floor. He spoke slowly and in a low tone. Mr. Gorman rehearsed the difficulties that had confronted the Democratic party in dealing with the question of tariff reform. The difficulty was not all in opposition, but internal dissension as to how the fruits of victory could be secured. Withal he claimed that action by the present cougress had not been unusually delayed. It was the last of September before the president signed the McKinley bill and this is only May. The Wilson bill, he said, had been reported to the house before its effect upon existing industries could be properly studied; an imperfect measure that failed to meet the treasury demands but actually increased the deficit created by the Republican prohibitive duties. Changes Expected. There was no expectation that it would become a law unchanged. The senate had always perfected such bills, Yet, no to have more than one or two booths in each voting precinct, but by having sooner did the finance committee begin its work than the cry for "action" was renewed with extraordinary vigor, and the Democratic senators were informed that any change would be set down as "betrayal of the party's promises," and that every senator who showed the least concern for the interests of his own state was a traitor to the United States and his party; that the senate was no longer a co-ordinate body, but its sole duty was to ratify blindly the action of the house. Said Mr. Gorman: "It would be idle, Mr. President, to dwell upon the manifest absurdities of this outgrowth of petulance. But it cannot be denied that the demand for prompt action seriously impaired the efficiency of the finance committee's work and ultimately became so strong that revision was hastily completed and the bill was reported to the senate. I ventured the assertion in the course of the silver debate that the truth of the old adage, "The greater haste the less speed," was nowhere better exemplified than in leg-islation. So it proved then and so it will

"I do not propose to discuss the merits or demerits of the original Wilson bill or the measure first reported by the finance committee. It is sufficient for the Democratic party."

Followed Cleveland's Directions. In answer to the Republicans Mr. Gorman asserted that the bill had been constructed on the Democratic theory of a tariff for revenue, with such incidental protection as could be given con-sistently to the industries of the country. It followed strictly the course marked out by President Cleveland in his letter of acceptance upon which he was re-elected and the Democratic party en-trusted with full power. If there had been the slightest apprehension in the public mind of a radical overturning of our industrial affairs, Mr. Cleveland would not have been re-elected.

Senator Gorman denied that any trust had dictated any part of any schedule or bill. Justice to Louisiana had required the retention of the sugar bounty. That the sugar trust had thrived under the Republican tariff there could be no question; whether it would prosper under the new bill remains to be

Upon the subject of the income tax 83... 220 4.5216 88... 225 4.50 Mr. Gorman said: "In the matter of in- 24..., 216 4.4716 88... 154 4.40

ternal revenue, I may say that personally, I am in full accord with the sentiment which has been so ably and so eloquently expressed by the senators from New York and New Jersey regarding the income tax. Like them, I consider that it served its pur-pose as a war tax and has no fitting pose as a war tax and has no fitting place in our system in a time of peace. I could not vote conscientiously or consistently with my judgment and convictions to make this method of taxation a part of our settled policy, but much as I deplore the fastening of an income tax in any form upon our tariff bill. I cannot ignore the fact that a large majority of my Democratic collea-gues should differ from myself in this matter and are so confident of the soundness of their position, that they are willing to subject it to the test of a few years, thus enabling the people to see its actual workings and to pass upon it directly."

ONE MAN HALF SHAVED

Rushed In to Vote on Senator Teller's Motion to Table. Washington, May 28.—When Mr. Teller arose in the senate today to move that the tariff bill be laid on the table Republicans and Democrats alike felt as he spoke that some move was pending. He was interested, Mr. Teller said, to learn from Mr. Gorman that a majority of the senate would support the compromise bill. He was also interested in learning that the Democratic party was standing not on the Chicago platform, but upon Mr. Cleveland's platform. He had known that the party had abandoned the Chicago platform as far as silver was concerned at Mr. Cleveland's dictation, but he had learned for the first time today that Mr. Cleveland's utterance took precedence over the plank of the ,arty platform on the tariff. Still, even after what Mr. Gorman had said, he was still in doubt as to the condition of the other side. The Maryland senator had not said that all the Democrats would support the bill. He had said that a majority of the senate would support it. How many Populists were counted on by Mr. Gorman to make up a majority of the senate? Were there any backsliders among the Democrats? These were all interesting questions and in order to make every senator show his colors, he would move to lay the tariff bili on the table.

Mr. Teller's motion was like a bomb shell. It created consternation on both Bells rang and pages were sent scurrying through the corridors to drum up every available senator, in order that the full strength might be polled.

Mr. Butler (Dem. S. C.), who was in the barber's chair when a messenger found him, came in with one side of his face shaved. The roll call was watched with intense interest.

Curiosity was particularly manifested as to how Messrs. Hill, Irby and Peffer would vote All three voted against the Teller motion; the Democratic line did not show a single gap, and the three avowed Populists, Allen, Kyle and Peffer, voted with them. The motion was defeated—23 to 38.

It is expected that the committee wiil at this time issue the call for the nominating election to choose the candidates for county officers to be voted for at the fall election. Since the big row in the county codvention last Saturday there has developed an almost overwhelming sentiment in favor of the Crawford county system primaries to nominate the county ticket, and the committee will probably take some action along that line, It is also proposed to have a modified system of the Australian ballot to govern the election. It is not thought necessary the booths, a secret ballot will be had and the election will be more satisfactory to the party. The expense, divided among the large number of candidates, will be very light.

HIGHER WAGES TO MINERS. The Weir Coal Co. of Pittsburg, Kan., L .-

PITTEBURG, Kan., May 23.—Superintendent Kirkwood of the Weir Coal Co., surprised his men at No. 5 shaft last night by calling them together and offering them an increase to 8714 cents for screen lump coal in summer and $1 f.r. winter; and for mine run coal 5216 cents in summer and 60 cents in winter. The men at this shaft have not yet been out on a strike and were working for 50 cents for mine run the year round. The same proposition will be made to Weir companies No. 2 and 3.

Both of the last named shafts are out. Four coach loads of the Alabama colored miners leave this afternoon for Indian Territory to work for the Choctaw Coal and Coke company.
